Malaysian Knitting Manufacturers Association (MKMA)

PENINSULAR
MALAYSIA

The Malaysian Knitting Manufacturers Association (MKMA) is the leading textile and apparel trade association in Malaysia. MKMA established in the year 1975, based in Batu Pahat, Johor, the textile city of Malaysia.

MKMA has managed to grow and prosper for 44 years regardless of challenging headwinds. Moving forward, we urge all industry players to stand united, be supportive and join us onboard for a momentous journey ahead towards a more profitability and productive goal.

MKMA Incorporated in 1975

MKMA has been playing a vital role in the Malaysian textile and apparel industry. MKMA works closely with Government ministries and agencies, trade bodies and other institutions to resolve problems, develop policies and facilitate projects.

For the betterment of the industry, MKMA has developed extensive networks both domestically and internationally to create trade opportunities and increase the competitiveness of the industry. We provide the most informative website and the only textile association that publishes weekly news and newsletters.

Mission

- To increase the global competitiveness of the industry
- To upgrade the quality of textile & apparel products
- To explore and create market opportunities for members
- To deal with problems on an industry-wide basis.
